

Learn the power of the Ardoq Microsoft Azure importer enabling you to link your Azure resources into the Ardoq platform to achieve end-to-end traceability from technical viewpoint to strategy.

What it is

Streamlining data flows from third-party applications that contain relevant information for your Ardoq meta-model, reports and dashboards ensures that analysis and decision making is always performed with the most up-to-date knowledge. The Ardoq Microsoft Azure Importer is an out-of-the-box connector that enables the synchronization of Azure-hosted application data with Ardoq.

To assist you with the implementation of this, an Ardoq Professional Services integration consultant will provide you with the necessary knowledge and skills to configure the Ardoq Azure Importer feature via four interactive workshops.
